"Literacy is a Bridge from Misery to Hope."
~ Kofi Annan

If you've ever been told you're just not smart enough or that you do not have the skills to get ahead in life, there is hope. The TriadWorks Literacy & Lifelong Learning Guide can help you get the not out of your life and put you on the path to success.

Step 1. Go to: www.TriadWorks.org

Step 2. Click the orange "not" campaign graphic on the right side of the TriadWorks home page to take you to the Literacy & Lifelong Learning Guide.

Step 3. Search for literacy programs by county or organization or category (pre-K, K-12, or adult/family).

Click an icon for desired category. Literacy & Lifelong Learning Resources Guide

3a. Click the "Search by County" icon. Choose a county from the drop down list. Click "Search" to display literacy programs in that county.

3b. Click the "Search by Organization" icon. Choose the type of organization from the drop down list. Click "Search."

3c. Find your county on the map of Piedmont Triad counties. Then choose the desired Program Code icon within your county.
